

LEGAL SERVICES SUPPORT

The Principals and Professional Staff at Egis Real Estate Services have broad experience with receiverships and other insolvency solutions for real property, partnerships, corporations and businesses.

PROFESSIONAL CONSULTANTS:

Christopher Holden, RPA, CPM,
Director of Asset Services

20 years' experience in property, facilities, and asset management. Mr. Holden's expertise covers Receiverships, Real Estate Management & Transactions, Lease Administration and Corporate Services.

Tom Ripley, Director of Engineering Services

30 years' experience in building and industrial engineering operations. Mr. Ripley's expertise is in Building & Systems Operations, Technical Infrastructure Development, Labor Relations and Marina Management.

Ed Doyne, Director of Technology Services

20 years' Facilities & Building Management experience. Mr. Doyne's expertise is centered in the telecommunications industry, data center development, leasing & management and facilities services.

Bonnie Hanson, Construction Services Manager

10 years' industry experience. Ms. Hanson's expertise is in large shell & core projects and complex tenant improvements, cost-to-complete budgets, real time estimates, progress verification and inspection.

Brian Moore, LEED® AP O+M Certified

10 years' experience in commercial real estate service operations. Mr. Moore's expertise is in LEED for Existing Building projects and sustainable building operations and maintenance consulting.

Egis provides the following:

- * Litigation support
- * Expert witnesses testimony
- * Available as Court-appointed Receiver
- * Property, facilities, and construction management
- * Full Service building engineering
- * Property energy audits and LEED certification
- * Owner's representation leasing for financial institutions, Receivers, Trustees, Referees and Estate Administrators

